PrimeVest signs MB Financial Bank

PrimeVest Financial Services, a broker-dealer dedicated to serving financial institutions, announced today that it has signed a deal to provide MB Financial Bank N.A. (Chicago, Ill.) financial advisors with investment and insurance solutions, program infrastructure and comprehensive support designed to help broaden MB client relationships and grow revenue.

“We are very excited to welcome MB Financial Bank to our growing family of financial institutions,” said PrimeVest President and CEO Catherine Bonneau. “The bank is celebrating 100 years of service in 2011 and we’re looking forward to being part of its second century of success.”

MB Financial Bank, whose parent company, MB Financial, Inc., holds approximately $10 billion in assets, serves Chicagoland with over 90 branches. It previously operated its own broker-dealer and cleared through Pershing via another broker-dealer. Kim Scalzitti, president of MB Financial Investments, will manage the investment program and its approximately 100 registered representatives.

“There were many reasons we chose PrimeVest, but the primary factor was that their systems integrate so smoothly within the bank environment,” said Scalzitti. “They work exclusively with financial institutions, from their systems and support to the reporting.”
