Hubbard Ranked among Top 100 Branch Managers by On Wall Street

Dave Hubbard, registered principal and regional director for the Exemplar Financial Network Region of Financial Network Investment Corporation, was recently named among the Top 100 Branch Managers of 2010 by On Wall Street. His selection is the third in as many years for Hubbard, who also ranked among the On Wall Street Top 10 in 2008.

The annual On Wall Street Branch Manager Awards honor excellence in branch management, recognizing achievements in marketing strategy creation, recruiting, developing and retaining talent, and providing superior client service.

“I am very pleased to see Dave selected among the On Wall Street Top 100 yet again,” said Financial Network President and CEO Jack Handy. “Dave brings tremendous value to new financial advisors and more experienced advisors alike. He has a unique ability to partner his advisors with different strengths to maximize opportunities. This also creates a great sense of teamwork within the organization.”

Hubbard exemplifies the tenets of Financial Network’s unique regional director model, serving his clients, managers and more than 150 advisors.

“I am truly honored to once again be selected among the On Wall Street Top 100,” said Hubbard. “As a Financial Network regional director, we live a value proposition of promoting dramatic growth at every stage of an advisor’s career, from training and mentoring new advisors to business planning, acquisitions and succession planning. It’s very gratifying to know that the advisors in my organization find me to be a valuable part of their business.”

Based in Crystal Lake, Ill., Hubbard is celebrating his 21st year with Financial Network, having built his firm from nine advisors in 1992 to over 150 advisors today. He became a Financial Network regional director in 1992, was a member of the Board of Directors from 1992-2001, and has served several years on the Regional Director Advisory Committee.
